PEOPLE ON THE MOVE

Apryl Hettich is the latest rising star in the desert sky over Arizona. Apryl launched her career when she was named Miss Arizona-USA in 1993. She is currently the reigning MS. Arizona internationale 1995 and well along the way to firmly establishing herself as a national talent with acting and singing credits too numerous to mention.

The youngest of eleven children, Apryl embraces her Comanche Indian ancestry. She sees her heritage as a stepping-stone to greater understanding and acceptance of the Native American as a contributing member of society. "Having Indian blood means I have a high sense of purpose and responsibility. I represent the future for many of my brothers and sisters."

Apryl has starred in the movie, "Nine Hours to Yuma", hosted an infomercial for "Perfume House Sabbia" and was last seen as Barbara Smith in the current production of "Run for Your Wife". She is currently involved with producing and starring in her second feature film scheduled to be shot in Arizona in 1995. She is sponsored by Pucci's Salon of Scottsdale, Planet Fitness, Always Tan and Fifth Avenue Fine Leathers.
